False Claims Act

Nelson Hardiman’s marquee False Claims Act (FCA) practice has a national reputation for protecting healthcare systems and related entities sued by whistleblowers and/or the federal government under the FCA. Our market-leading litigators defend healthcare entities from charges of submitting false claims for medical services and items to Medicare and other federal healthcare programs in violation of the FCA.

Our legal team blends a wealth of government experience in healthcare fraud with extensive knowledge of complex statutory, regulatory and agency requirements. We harness the dogged determination of dedicated trial lawyers to decisively resolve FCA claims. Our tenacious stance and industry knowledge make Nelson Hardiman the go-to law firm for defending healthcare whistleblower lawsuits.