Fraud & Abuse

Nelson Hardman fiercely defends healthcare providers from devastating allegations of healthcare fraud and abuse on a daily basis. We litigate, case-by-case, through victories and favorable resolutions, every facet of criminal investigations and charges, civil False Claims Act (FCA) fraud and abuse actions.

Few law firms can boast Nelson Hardiman's experience in defending healthcare providers against allegations of fraud and abuse. Mark Hardiman, who leads Nelson Hardiman's fraud and abuse practice area, is widely known among healthcare providers as the go-to defense lawyer for difficult and high-stakes Medicare and Medi-Cal fraud cases and is regarded as one of the most prominent fraud and abuse defense attorneys in California.

We have successfully represented countless individual physicians and healthcare facilities against fraud and abuse allegations in many of the leading cases filed in Southern California. And we have won significant victories at trial and on appeal and negotiated countless favorable settlements with federal and state regulatory agencies.
