Private Equity

Nelson Hardiman's work in the private equity sector includes both "buy-side" and "sell-side" work. Our attorneys are well-acquainted with the issues involved in private equity acquisition of healthcare assets and organizations. Several of our lawyers have come directly from private equity and healthcare investment experience, giving us particular experience in the negotiation, documentation, and implementation of private equity investment. Nelson Hardiman is recognized as a primary law firm choice for both investors and target companies in the healthcare and life science sectors. With a proven understanding of how legal regulatory and business issues directly impact investment results, our team advises private equity firms, hedge funds, and other private investor clients on all types of transactions and legal matters including but not limited to the formation of funds, platform acquisitions, add-on acquisitions, dividend recapitalizations, and realization transactions.
