Top Healthcare Litigation Attorneys

Nelson Hardiman has earned a national reputation for its work representing healthcare businesses and institutions in a variety of litigation matters, including licensing defense, operational and contract disputes, and complex reimbursement lawsuits. Our preeminent litigators draw on their trial strengths and their experience as government prosecutors and big-firm commercial litigators to help healthcare providers and suppliers to overcome diverse legal challenges. Our clients have an edge in legal battles because our litigators understand and anticipate the impact of nuanced state and federal healthcare regulations on the litigation landscape. Our litigation strategy reflects our regulatory expertise within an increasingly transformative healthcare system.

Our team defends healthcare providers sued by whistleblowers and/or the federal government for violations of the False Claims Act, and regularly defends against accusations of fraud and abuse by both public and private payors. We regularly litigate complex business issues that financially impact the operation of healthcare facilities, including precedent-setting decisions that clarify industry-wide standards of practice. With a proven track record of success, Nelson Hardiman attorneys are on the frontline of the challenges facing the healthcare industry to win decisive victories for our clients.
