LOS ANGELES (PRWEB) DECEMBER 16, 2021

Moshe Kupietzky, one of the most respected corporate finance attorneys in Los Angeles, has joined healthcare law firm Nelson Hardiman, deepening its bench for transactional matters. “Moshe Kupietzky has built a reputation as being on a short list of the very best corporate finance attorneys in Southern California and nationally, representing buyers and sellers in complex transactions. It is a genuine privilege for us to add an elite M&A lawyer of Moshe’s caliber to our ranks. He brings the kind of serious expertise that our healthcare and life science clients need,” said Managing Partner Harry Nelson.

Kupietzky joins Nelson Hardiman from the Reed Smith law firm. Previously, he served as head of Sidley Austin’s Los Angeles Corporate and Finance practice for more than 20 years, and served as managing partner of the firm’s Los Angeles office from 2003–2009.

Moshe also brings deep experience in financing and M&A transactions. “Nelson Hardiman has an exceptional reputation as a dynamic, cutting edge law firm, which made it a seamless transition for me,” said Moshe Kupietzky. “I look forward to contributing to the expansion of the firm’s transactional expertise and practice.”

A graduate of Harvard Law School, Kupietzky has been frequently recognized for his leadership and more than five decades of professional impact and influence in the corporate arena. Since 2007, Chambers USA has annually named him a leading Corporate/M&A attorney, and, since 2008, also a leading lawyer in Banking & Regulatory.
