

Home Health, Home Care, and the Need for Disruption

Speaking at the Medtrade Home Medical Equipment Conference in Atlanta, GA, on October 24, 2017, Harry Nelson discusses challenges facing the medical device and equipment world. He expects the industry to see slow growth in home health and stronger growth in home care. Further, Harry foresees costs coming down through future industry disruption.