Regulators Tamp Down on Mergers of Hospitals, The New York Times

Rob Fuller discusses the mergers of hospitals under the Affordable Care Act. In this article, he explains that“these consolidations are absolutely mandated,”and argues that “the different government branches are sending conflicting signals to hospitals.”

Read more