Key Tips for Cannabis Businesses to Consider Before the New Year

Nelson Hardiman attorney Aaron Lachant spoke to a full house at the MMLG Cannabis Compliance Seminar on Tuesday, November 21. In the video Aaron implores business owners and entrepreneurs in the marijuana industry to take the following action before the New Year:

- Put together plans and premise diagrams
- Consider how businesses will need regulatory overhauls and changes to operations next year
- Stock up on inventory
- Look at building and safety compliance
