2 Highly Respected Attorneys Join Healthcare and Life Sciences Law Firm

Hope Levy-Biehl and Stacie Neroni's recent move to Nelson Hardiman was highlighted in the article, "2 highly respected attorneys join healthcare and life sciences law firm – 5 details," published in Bescker's ASC Review:

> Stacie Neroni and Hope Levy-Biehl joined Los Angeles-based Nelson Hardiman, expanding the firm's regulatory practice. Here's what you should know:
>
> 1. The attorneys both joined from Hooper, Lundy & Bookman, PC.
>
> 2. Ms. Neroni focuses on regulatory compliance, licensure, certification and operational matters for various providers, including ASCs and physicians. She has expertise in regulatory issues that arise from ownership and management changes.
>
> 3. Ms. Levy-Biehl is an expert on health information privacy and security and advises clients on regulatory issues stemming from mergers, acquisitions and reorganizations. She was chair of the regulatory department at Hooper, Lundy & Bookman and will continue serving in that role at Nelson Hardiman.

View Article