When to Apply Federal and State Law to Anti-Kickback Issues

Speaking at the Addiction Executives Industry Summit (AXIS) in Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida on March 5, 2018, Nelson Hardiman managing partner, Harry Nelson, explains when federal and state law apply to anti-kickback issues. Specifically, federal laws apply when federal dollars are at stake with programs including Medicare, Medicaid, and military dependents. Whereas state law applies when dealing with private insurance plans.
