

Nelson Hardiman Partner Aaron Lachant Recognized for Leadership Role in L.A. Cannabis Law

The Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors commended Nelson Hardiman partner Aaron Lachant for his service on the Los Angeles County Advisory Working Group on Cannabis Regulation.

The commendation from the County Board of Supervisors is only the most recent recognition that Lachant has received for his singular leadership role in bringing together stakeholders to clarify standards on a wide range of issues related to cannabis. He was also named this month by the Daily Journal to its "Top 40 Under 40" list of California attorneys. Under Lachant's leadership, Nelson Hardiman became the first firm in Southern California to establish a reputation for serious regulatory compliance and transactional advice, becoming one of California's leading advisors on research, development, and manufacture of cannabinoid and CBD products in compliance with DEA and FDA requirements, investment and lawful financial structures, and other cutting edge issues in federal and state cannabis compliance.

Full Article