

Nelson Hardiman Drafted Cannabis Legislation Scores Victory for Malibu Residents and Client

With the City of Malibu refusing to implement adult use cannabis regulations, Nelson Hardiman drafted a ballot measure to overturn the cannabis ban in April 2018. Measure G, which allows adult use cannabis and delivery in Malibu, not only qualified for the November 2018 election, but was also overwhelmingly passed by voters. As a result, a Nelson Hardiman client received their adult use permit from Malibu in January 2019 and will begin selling to the community shortly.
