Rob Fuller Becomes a Nelson Hardiman Partner

Nelson Hardiman LLP is pleased to announce that attorney Rob Fuller has become a partner in the firm.

Fuller, a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives, joined Nelson Hardiman as Of Counsel in July 2014. Prior to joining the firm, he served as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Downey Regional Medical Center from 2003 through 2013. In his tenure at Downey (now renamed PIH Health Hospital-Downey), Fuller led the 199-bed, 1,100-employee not-for-profit hospital through a Chapter 11 bankruptcy, turn-around, and acquisition by PIH Health (formerly Presbyterian Intercommunity Hospital). Prior to his service at Downey Regional, Fuller ran his own law firm in downtown Los Angeles, and spent 16 years in various capacities with Texaco Inc. Fuller graduated from Dartmouth College and holds a law degree from Fordham University. He is admitted in New York as well as California.

At Nelson Hardiman, Fuller has led the firm's transactional practice, leveraging his experience with corporate governance, reorganizations, financing, credit facility and banking operations, bond issuance and compliance. "It is rare to find attorneys with Rob Fuller's healthcare experience and wisdom," commented Managing Partner Harry Nelson. "Over the past 18 months, his work has been transformational for our firm and our clients. We are thrilled to have him as a partner."
