Cannabis Finance: Investment Issues

Partner and key member of Nelson Hardiman's Transactional Practice Group, Larry Gill, will be a part of the California Cannabis Industry Symposium's Cannabis Finance Panel. Larry will be discussing the potential issues surrounding investment in the Cannabis Industry.

About the California Cannabis Industry Symposium:

A significant increase in cannabis industry activity is here which leads to an increase and demand for professional services. Attend to gain an understanding of new and recently implemented policies, practical insights into serving cannabis-industry clients and get takeaways from accounting experts, attorneys and business owners. This is the chance to network and visit exhibitor booths to learn more about industry trends—get questions answered at the State of California's information table.