

Glyphix Win SCA's (Summit Creative Award) for Nelson Hardiman Marketing Campaign Design

San Fernando Valley, CA (May 20th, 2013) – Glyphix Advertising in Warner Center proves once again that breakthrough creativity and a true passion for helping clients is their key to success and longevity. Based on a memorable and successful series of marketing collateral pieces for Nelson Hardiman. Glyphix has won the SCA's (Summit Creative Award) bronze award for business to business marketing for their "We See Things Differently" campaign. We are proud to have them as our design and graphics partner, congratulations on your recent award!