

Successful Appeal by Nelson Hardiman Lawyer of Post-payment Medicare review

Nelson Hardiman successfully appealed a Medicare post-payment review on behalf of a physician client who had been ordered to repay over one million dollars to the Medicare Program. At a hearing before the Office of Medicare Hearing Appeals, Nelson Hardiman lawyer and partner Harry Nelson presented extensive witness testimony to refute the Medicare auditors' claims that services has failed to qualify for Medicare coverage. Based on the evidence presented, the administrative law judge reduced the repayment amount to under ten thousand dollars.
