Latest on the Senate Republican Healthcare Bill

Nelson Hardiman Co-Founder and Managing Partner, Harry Nelson, was interviewed by Lori Lundon on Voice of America about the newly released Senate Republican Healthcare Bill. Starting at 2:04, Harry sees the bill as a compromise likely to be disliked by most. In fact, he would be surprised, but not shocked, if the bill comes up for a vote in the Senate. Ultimately, he finds the legislation hurts the poorest Americans while benefiting the wealthiest Americans with tax cuts.
