

Sarvnaz (Miriam) Mackin appointed to the California Society of Healthcare Attorneys' (CSHA) Publications Committee

Nelson Hardiman is proud to announce that Sarvnaz \(Miriam\) Mackin was appointed to the California Society of Healthcare Attorneys' \(CSHA\) Publications Committee.

CSHA is an established healthcare law organization that promotes legal education and networking opportunities for California healthcare attorneys involved in all aspects of the healthcare industry. The Publications Committee oversees the publication of California Health Law News, a quarterly publication that covers the most up-to-date healthcare law issues. As a committee member, Miriam will be involved in researching upcoming topics, identifying qualified authors, and editing written works to ensure they conform to the guidelines set forth by the committee.
